

GMSC Director of Operations appointed on the working group for development of Best Practices on "Biosolids Management Programs"

Monday, September 16, 2002

The Greater Moncton Sewerage Commission Director of Operations, Conrad Allain P.Eng., has been appointed on the working group for development of Best Practices on "Biosolids Management Programs" and "Quality Management for Biosolids Programs" under the National Guide to Sustainable Municipal Infrastructure (Infraguide) managed by the National Research Council.